"This producer has many virtues - including good price points and a fresh feel to the wines. There's not a lot of oak in use here, and the wines have admirable purity and mid-palate finesse. For those who prefer grace and elegance, these are good choices. »

Robert Parker, by Mark Squires

"From the noble grape of the Douro, this wine has freshness, density and a fine perfumed character. Hints of violet and spice from wood aging enhance the wine's structure and blackberry fruits. The wine is still young, packed with fruitiness. Drink this bold interpretation of the grape from 2023."

Roger Voss, Wine Enthusiast

"(...) This wine has evolved nicely, coming together well. The defining feature on this is what I mentined last time - that lifted fruit. It feels ligh and bright with a juicy, very fresh finish. The tannins are quite ripe, so this is very easy to drink now. And if you do, it's pretty tasty, in a dry and refined way. This is a perfect food wine. It has a ceiling, as I don't think it will turn into anything more (...) but it is most certainly a pleasure to drink rigt now. Don't hesitate to dive in when it is young.»

"Le nez est frais, fruité et racé. On y retrouve des notes de petites baies sauvages, de cassis et plus légèrement de violette associées à des touches de petits fruits noirs, de fraise des bois, à des pointes de bosquet local(...). La bouche est fruitée, équilibrée, bien menée et offre de la suavité, un petit gras, de la gourmandise, une fine rondeur, un fin côté incisif, une fine trame acidulée ainsi qu'une fine concentration. En bouche ce vin exprime des notes de baies rouges sauvages juteuses/croquantes, de framboise croquante (...). Les tannins sont bien menés et racés. Présence d'une très discrète pointe de caramélisation sur la fin de bouche.
